TRANSFER WILL SOON BE MADE

Preparations Practically Complete-Gen. Gomez Will Take Inaugural Oath at Noon, Jan. 28.

Havana, Jan. 1 .- The inaugural step toward the re-establishment of the Cuban republic was marked with the New Year's reception at the palace today, when Gov. Magon formally presented the diplomatic representatives and consular officers, the supervisors of the governmental departments, the judges of the supreme and minor couts, the presidents of the commercial guilds the representatives of the foreign and native press, the officers of the Cuban armed forces and many prominent citizens to the preseident-elect. Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, and to the vice-president-elect, Alfred Zayas.

The palace was beautifully decorated, and Cuban military bands played during the reception which lasted from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Gov. Magoon received in the grand salon.

The governor was attended by his addes in full dress uniform, with Gen. Gomez, Senor Zayas and the former American consul, Frank Steinhart, who was the official adviser of the governor during the whole period of intervention, standing at his right. The Spanish minister, R. Guaytan de Ayala, dean of the diplomatic corps, congrativated. Gov. Magoon on the success of and consular officers, the supervisors

WENT INSANE IN BILLY SUNDAY'S TABERNACLE

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 2.—Stark Laked and raving mad, Mays, a strapping laborer, 2 years old, went suddenly insane in the Billy Sunday tabernacle about 6 o'clock last night and attempted to mount the pulpit to deliver an exhortation to the assembled early-comers on "the devil." The madman was prevented from currying out his purpose by ushers with whom he fought like a tiger. Wrapped in a blanket, the insane man was taken to the city jail, bound hand and foot.

At the station Mays declared he had disrobed to prove that he was an angel from God. Still manacled, the man was locked up in a strong cell, where he squirmed out of the blanket and began to shout that he was the devil come to put Billy Sunday out of business. He varied these statements by singing hymns.

Before making his spectacular attempt to enter the tabernacie, Mays went into a waiting room where he disorbed. He was half way to the ouipit when he was discovered. His herculean strength enabled him to fight his captors for several minutes before he was overcome and bound.

Exchanged New Year Greetings With People of All Lands and Every State and Territory.

VERY PICTURESQUE AFFAIR.

Less Haste Than Usual in Urging the Line of Callers Past the Receiving Praty.

Washington, Jan. 1.-President Roosevelt and 6,000 people, representing every land and every state and territory in the Union, today exchanged happy New Year greetings at the White House. For three and a half hours the president stood receiving his guests, and when the reception was ended last year's record of attendance had been broken by over 700. Many men and women distinguished in the official and social life of Wash-in the official and social life of Washington were present.

The brilliant court dress of members of the diplomatic corps gave a picturesque aspect to the annual function, which throughout was marked by an absence of formality. The number of small children who were brought by their parents to shake hands which the president was unprecedented.

The weather was cool and bracing, and the thousands of people who assembled to greet President and Mrs. Roosevelt showed the utmost good nature during their long wait in the White House grounds before they gained admission to the mansion. There was less haste than is usual in urging the callers past the receiving party. Contrary to the custom of Fecent years, Mrs. Roosevelt and the ladies of the cabinet remained in the red room throughout the function.

There were receptions at the home of Vice-President Fairbanks, Speaker Cannon and the members of the cabinet.

The closing of all the government departments and of local businesss concerns enabled thousands of officials and employes to participate in cials and employes to participate in celebrating the day.

President Roosevelt, after receiving at the White House, took a long cross country horseback ride.

Attending for the first time a public reception at the White House were the Philippines resident-commissioners. Legarda and Ocampo, who mingled with the crowd in the state diningroom. They were among the first to wish the president a happy New Year. They talked much with the representatives of other insular governments of the United States.

Cures Dyspepsia; Trial is Free

It is a popular mistake that only wealthy people who est rich and highly-spiced foods suffer from dyspensia, or, as it is also known, indigestion. The laborer in the street, the worker in the field also finds himself a victim of this disorder. Amona the very greatistic sufferers from it are women.

Dyspepsia is indicated by a constant feeling of laziness, by loss of appetite and troubled sleep, by sour stomach and distress after eating, by bad complexion and lusterless eyes.

There is no surer and speedier cure for this trouble than Dr. Caldwel's Syrup Pepsia, which dyspeptics have been using successfully for twenty years. This great herb laxative compound cured Capt. Clark, of Buffalo. Is., of dyspepsia and sour stomach that he had had for forty years, or until the lucky day that he heard of Dr. Caldwel's Syrup Pepsia. It cured Joel Adams, of Montgomery, Ala, after suffering continuously for sixteen months. These are only a few of the many. But it is not expensive to be cured with this grand remedy, as it can be bought at any drug store in a 80-cent or 11 bot. Your very neighbors are probably fite-

Your very neighbors are probably fifelong users of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Fepsin, but if you want to know without expense what it will do for your personally, send your name to Dr. Caldwell and he will be glad to send you a free trial bottle. He is actually anxious to have you make a test of his remedy.

Thousands of families everywhere keep it in the house against such an emergency as constipation, sour stomach, indigestion, billousness, dyspensia, heartburn, torpid liver, etc., which may come on a member of the family any day. It is pleasant to the tast, acts great children's laxative tonic.
